

Brandeis Net Impact

Presents

Social Entrepreneurship Panel:

"LEVERAGING BUSINESS FOR SOCIAL CHANGE"

Moderator: Prof. Carole Carlson

Siri Morley, Founding Partner Prosperity Candle

Prosperity Candle provides women recovering from conflict or disaster with the opportunity to become business leaders through making candles and gifts.

*Jeanne Dasaro, Co-Founder
The New Prosperity Initiative*

The New Prosperity Initiative publicizes the efforts of individuals and organizations working to build social and economic prosperity to facilitate collective problem solving.

*Ross Lohr, Co-Founder
Repat*

Repat encourages mindful consumption and creates fair wage jobs around the world by upcycling second-hand t-shirts into fun and fashionable products.

*Erin Anderson, Dir. Community Devt
GoLocal Metro Boston*

GoLocal Metro Boston has a unique model that champions those who run locally sourced businesses and rewards those who support them.

*HeatherJean MacNeil, Founder
Proxy Apparel*

Proxy Apparel is an ethical fashion company for women dedicated to supporting fair trade cooperatives around the world and creating social change.

Wed, 14 March 2012, 12.15 - 1.45 pm
Room G3, Heller School
This is a brown bag lunch event.

